

University College Dublin
School of Geography

International Geographical Union
/ Union Géographique
Internationale - Commission
History of Geography /
Commission Histoire de la
Géographie

International Symposium on the History of Geographical Thought

GEOGRAPHIES OF IDENTITIES AND IMAGINATIONS

University College Dublin, Belfield (Dublin 4, Republic of Ireland)

10-12 July 2019

PROGRAMME

All sessions will take place in Room E003, School of Geography, Newman Building

Wednesday 10 July 2019

9.00 Welcome of participants

10.00-10.30 – Federico Ferretti and Arlene Crampsie (UCD), Tribute to Anne Buttimer

COFFEE BREAK

11.00 – 12.40 - Histories of mappings

Nicolas Verdier (CNRS-EHESS, Paris), Ce que la carte rend possible. Réflexions sur les discours relatifs à la carte au XVIIIe siècle.

Carolina Martínez (CONICET, Buenos Aires), Shaping the Antipodes: Travel Narratives and Geographical Imagination in the Making of Pars Quinta

Andre Reyes Novaes (Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro – UERJ), Border Narratives and the Circulation of Maps during the War of the Triple Alliance (1864-1870)

Matheus da Silveira Grandi (Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro – UERJ), Unveiling different thoughts: The scalar debate in Brazilian Geography

Quentin Morcrette (Université Lyon 2), (Re)presenting the road: maps, illustrations, and geographical imagination

LUNCH

14.30-15.40 - Drawing borders

Jean-Yves Puyo (Université de Pau), Une frontière pour la Guyane française: l'invention des Tumuc-Humac

Cristina Santos Sánchez (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid), The geographical imagination in conflict and cross-border spaces: Olivenza

Paloma Puente Lozano, Jacobo García-Álvarez (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid), Polarizing borderlands imagination: state and local communities' discourses on violence and conflict within the Spanish-Portuguese border regions in 19th century.

Benjamin Duinat (Université Paris Sciences et Lettres – Universidad Complutense de Madrid), « An historical geography of identification processes in Basque borderland during the War of the Limits (1827-1856) »

COFFEE BREAK

16.10-17.50- Exploring life worlds

Marcella Schmidt di Friedberg (Università di Milano-Bicocca), (Dis)orientation in Grasping the Dynamism of Lifeworld (1976)

Marianna Fernandes Moreira (Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Norte – UFRN), A place to call home: Lifepaths of homeless women in an occupied building

Pascal Clerc (Université de Cergy-Pontoise), Par le petit bout de la lorgnette. L'histoire de l'École française de géographie par la biographie

Kent Mathewson (State University of Louisiana), Carl O. Sauer and the Berkeley School: Critical or conservative geography?

Trevor Barnes (University of British Columbia), Towards a geographical biography of William Bunge

18.00-19.00 KEYNOTE SPEECH BY PROFESSOR DAVID N. LIVINGSTONE
(Queen University Belfast) - “The climate of historical explanation”

Thursday 11 July 2019

9.00-10.40 Discussing the discipline and its histories

Stefania Bonfiglioli (Università di Bologna), What ethics is: At the roots of geographical thought

Ruth Craggs (King's College London) and Hannah Neate (Manchester Metropolitan University), Why 'doing geography' matters to the history of geography

Bruno Schelhaas (Leibniz Institut für Länderkunde – Leipzig), Between Zurich and International Geography: Hans Boesch and the global scientific community

Guilhem Labinal (Université de Cergy-Pontoise), Entre le recueilli et le ressenti: le carnet n° 13 (4) de Paul Vidal de la Blache

Florence Deprest (Université Paris 1 – Panthéon Sorbonne), « Voyage d'Espagne » de Jean Brunhes. Le journal d'une première expérience de terrain (1894)

COFFEE BREAK

11.10-12.50 Identities and imaginations-1

Samuel Randalls (University College London), Punch cards, life assurance companies and Huntington's imagined geographies of climate and mortality

Mariana Lamego (Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro – UERJ), Regional geographical imaginations and the circulation of Brazilian geographical knowledge: the excursion guidebook to Amazon to the 18th International Conference of Geography in Rio de Janeiro, 1956

Rubén Fernández Álvarez (Universidad de Salamanca), Landscape and citizen participation in the configuration of territorial identity. The role of landscape education and training

Jörn Seemann (Ball State University), Tropical Identities, Otherness and Sense of Place: Peace Corps Volunteers in Brazil (1962-1981)

LUNCH

14.30-16.10 Identities and imaginations-2

Tamami Fukuda (Osaka Prefecture University), Re-evaluation of “washoku” and national geographical imagination

Rory Rowan (University of Zurich), Colonial Futurism in the Azores: The Geopolitical Imaginaries of Portugal’s Atlantic Spaceport

Verónica Ibarra García, Liliana López Levi (Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México – UNAM), Cinema and the production of Mexican identity

Stephan Maximilian Pietsch (Leibniz Institut für Länderkunde – Leipzig), Time/Space-Related Imaginations of the Arctic Regions in Contemporary Films and Series

COFFEE BREAK

16.40-18.20 Ethnicity, colonialism and post-colonialism

Deborah da Costa Fontenelle (Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro – UERJ), Geographical Imaginations on Brazilian Abolitionism: Contributions to a Historical Geography of Abolition in Brazil

Julia Doornbos, Bettina van Hoven & Peter Groote (University of Groningen), Postcolonial everyday geographies and Indo-European diasporic identities

Patrícia Gomes da Silveira (Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro – UFRJ), The fieldwork in historical geography: exploring the colonial archives in Brazil

Ferenc Gyuris (Eötvös Loránd University - ELTE), European overseas colonisation from the perspective of 19th-century Hungarian geographers

Raúl Molina Otárola (Centro de Estudios Interculturales e Indígenas CIIR-Chile), Ethnogeography: a geography for indigenous peoples

Friday 12 July 2012

9.00-10.40 Travels and international imaginations

Nuala C. Johnson (Queen University Belfast), Illustrating Nature: Charlotte Wheeler-Cuffe and the Natural History of Colonial Burma

Diogo Marçal Cirqueira (Universidade Federal Fluminense – UFF), Race and tropics in the Geographical Thought in Brazil (1880-1930)

Haim Goren (Tel-Hai College, Israel), Irish Explorers of the Jordan Rift and the Euphrates Valley in the 1830's: Science, Adventure and Imperialism

Toshiyuki Shimazu (Wakayama University), Exhibiting a liberal internationalism: Paul Otlet, Mundaneum and geography in early twentieth century Brussels

COFFEE BREAK

11.10-12.50 Planning and imagining cities

Vitor de Araujo Alves (Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro – UFRJ), The government of the Province: a contribution to spatial thinking in the Reports of the Presidents of Rio de Janeiro (1835-1889)

Michiel van Meeteren (University of Loughborough) Writing blue notes in the history march of spatial science: Revisiting the 1960 Lund symposium on problems in urban geography.

Rafael Gonçalves de Almeida (Instituto Federal de Educação, Ciência e Tecnologia do Rio Grande do Norte - IFRN), Medicine and Geography: The Provisional Proletarian Parks in Rio de Janeiro (1940-1960)

Larissa Alves de Lira (Universidade de São Paulo-USP), An Imagined Country: controversies on the location of Brasília, capital of Brazil, and the temporalities of inserting the sertão, Brazil's hinterlands, in the globalisation movement

Ángela García Carballo, Elia Canosa Zamora, Ester Sáez Pombo (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid), Gonzalo Madrazo García de Lomana (Universidad Complutense de Madrid), Reconstructing the identity of urban peripheral areas: official policies recently adopted by the city of Madrid

LUNCH

14.30-16.10 Representing territorial identities

Camilla da Rocha Oliveira (Rio de Janeiro Municipal Schools), Amazônia and its Representations in High School through the Textbooks 2005-2008

Tomas Paoliello Pacheco de Oliveira (Universidade do Estado do Maranhão – UEMA), Geographical discourses and plannings about the sertões (backlands), Brazilian Northeast (1939-1964)

Marie-Vic Ozouf-Marignier (EHESS), Créer de l'identité territoriale: les tentatives des notables locaux français au XIXe siècle

Marta Somoza Medina (ETSA, Barcelona), Daily landscapes in Galician periphery

Gonzalo Madrazo García de Lomana (Universidad Complutense de Madrid), Ester Sáez Pombo, Ángela García Carballo, Elia Canosa Zamora (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid), Landscape and identity around memorials and symbolic places representative of the Franco regime in Madrid

COFFEE BREAK

16.40-18.20 Geographies of national invention

Harald Gropp (University of Heidelberg), Ireland, a mathematician's country in Western Europe

Péter Balogh (Institute for Regional Studies, CERS - Hungarian Academy of Sciences), Clashing geopolitical imaginations: the strange co-presence of Christian bulwark and Eurasianism in Hungary

Fedor Korandei (Tyumen University – Russia), Soviet invocations of Siberia: official poetical campaigns praising geography as a case in internal colonisation

Erdem Bekaroglu I (Ankara University) and Trevor Barnes (University of British Columbia), Changing government, changing geography: The 1980 Turkish military coup d'état and geographical disciplinary practice

Darshan Karki (University of Zurich), The nationalism of the anti-nationals: The other's attempt to belong to the Nepali nation